My thought of seventh grade so far

On _____ Pronoun _____ Number day of seventh grade, I got lost a lot. I found myself at first having to follow other people because i would get confused. My first day was _____ Adjective and I didn't really like it. Lots and lots of rules to go _____ Preposition and lots of new teachers to meet. I was of course excited to see my friends and finally get to start fresh with a brand new year with brand new faces to memorize. _____ Pronoun think my favorite class is Geography because I'm really good at it. Although my favorite class is Geography, my _____ Adverb teacher is Mrs.Hack because she's really nice, fun, _____ Conjunction really cool! Along with Mrs.Hack, I really like Mrs.Burchell because she's also fun and cool. The _____ Preposition of seventh grade I think are that it's easy, there are lots of teachers so you don't get _____ Adjective with the same ones, and that the hallways are nice and big and we don't need a teacher to follow around all the time. The down-sides of seventh grade are that we have to share the high school with all of the grades _____ Preposition us, the bigger kids like to _____ Verb - Base Form around the smaller kids, and also that there are lots of steps that we have to go up and down during the day. My first-quarter special is Gym with Ms.Murray and it's really fun too! We have student council to join so we get to organize things for our _____ Noun. Come to think of it, I don't think this _____ Year school year will be all too bad after all!
