The Cliff

_____ First Name of a Person _____ AND THE CLIFF

BY MOI

I _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ up to _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ and _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ her off a cliff. I remember that _____ Noun _____ very well. The _____ Adjective _____ she emitted were enough to make your ears gush _____ Noun _____ . The sound she made when she hit the _____ Adjective _____ _____ Noun _____ below was VERY VERY satisfying. It was kind of like the sound you hear when _____ Noun _____ hit the _____ Noun _____ during a storm. I'm actually surprised she made such a _____ Adjective _____ noise, considering _____ First Name of a Person _____ wasn't nearby. _____ First Name of a Person _____ had actually told her the truth a few minutes before I pushed her and her crazy mind off the cliff. This is what he said " _____ First Name of a Person _____, I hate you." (He actually said "U _____ Adjective _____ _____ Noun _____ !!!" But never mind)

Then she said "Ha ha!!! I don't believe you!"

But then... "No I'm serious it was a dare"

"And why do you hang on to things from _____ Number _____ grade? I'm pretty sure everyone was _____ Adjective _____ or something." Then he _____ Verb - Base Form _____ away.

So then _____ First Name of a Person _____ started _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ like a _____ Noun _____ and that's why I pushed her off the cliff.

_____ First Name of a Person _____ thought that _____ First Name of a Person _____ actually liked her. Wow, why would anybody think that _____ First Name of a Person _____ likes them.
