The Bear

| 1.       | Articles              |
|----------|-----------------------|
| 2.       | Common Noun           |
| 3.       | Proper Noun           |
| 4.       | Articles              |
| 5.       | Proper Noun           |
| 6.       | Possessive Noun       |
| 7.       | Articles              |
| 8.       | Possessive Noun       |
| 9.       |                       |
| ر10. |                       |
|          |                       |
| 11.      | Past Tense            |
| 12.      | Comparative Adjective |
| 13.      | Comparative Adjective |
| 14.      | Past Tense            |
| 15.      | Superlative Adjective |
| 16.      | Superlative Adjective |
| 17.      | Common Noun           |
| 18.      | Present Tense         |
|          | Present Tense         |
| •        |                       |

The Bear

| One day       | Articles            | Common Noun           | named         | Proper Noun        | went to               | Articles      | lake in her      |
|---------------|---------------------|-----------------------|---------------|--------------------|-----------------------|---------------|------------------|
| home town o   | Proper Noun         | Rose love             | d to swim in  | the lake a lot     | but one day sl        | ne just want  | feeling right.   |
| Possessive    | Noun head w         | as hurting and a      | all she wante | d to do was to     | sleep. She wa         | ıs about to p | oass out when    |
| she heard     | Articles            | Possessive Noun       | footstep      | s in the distan    | ce. To her it so      | ounded like   | a big animal.    |
| She knew that | at if she stayed lo | ong it would cate     | ch her and m  | naybe even hui     | rt her. She dec       | ided to       | Action Verb      |
| She couldn't  | run well for the    | Earth was spinn       | ing in her ey | es. She saw a      | log and she kr        | new she wo    | uldn't have time |
| to go around  | so even though      | she was dizzy sł      | ne took a huş | ge Action V        | erb She _             | Past Tense    | and just         |
| behind her sh | ne heard the anin   | nal's footsteps g     | etting closer | . As her eyes d    | lart around she       | e get more o  | lizzy. The       |
| spinning got  | Comparative adj     | ective She the        | hought she v  | vould get          | Comparative adjective | but           | she didn't. She  |
| couldn't run  | any so she          | Past Tense . Sh       | ne tuned arou | and the wo         | orst thing she o      | could have t  | hought was       |
| following he  | r. It was the       | Superlative adjective | and           | Superlative adject | <sub>ive</sub> anima  | l she had ev  | ver seen. It was |
| a HUGE        | Common Noun         | She took it ho        | ome to feed i | t after she gair   | ned Present           | Tense C       | of her mind over |
| how stupid s  | he had acted. Ou    | nce the bare left     | t she went to | Present Tens       | se                    |               |                  |

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.