An AOS Nightmare Tale

On all hallows eve, [_____ First Name of a Person _____] came to work expecting it to be a [_____ Adjective _____] day. But it was no ordinary day. First things first, [_____ First Name of a Person _____] sees email from...dun dun dun...a COLLECTIONS ANALYST. There were [_____ Number _____] past due invoices and if not resolved by end of day, all the accounts would be shut off.

In the midst of this, [_____ First Name of a Person _____] had to [_____ Adverb _____] run to breakfast to get the last hard boiled egg before the [_____ Adjective _____] gate came down in the cafe to close for lunch prep.

Back at their desk, they received back to back to back meeting invites all in a row...The sadness set in, no time for a lunch break.

During the back to back to back meetings, they received a [_____ Adjective _____] email about their [_____ Event _____] takeover worth [_____ Number _____] dollars. It was severely underdelivering, needed to be reallocated and monitored through the night to deliver in full by 11:59 on Halloween! [Exclamation] No halloween party tonight for this AOS.

By 5pm, [_____ First Name of a Person _____] was [_____ Verb - Past Tense _____]. What a [_____ Adjective _____], [_____ Adjective _____] day. They didn't get to show off their [_____ Adjective _____] costume in the costume contest and their account teams looped in their manager on every issue. To top it all off, [First Name of a Person] didn't create a single case all day.

Now this is an AOS nightmare....
