The Raven by Edgar Allan Poe, first 4 stanzas

Once upon a           Noun           dreary, while I           Verb - Past Tense          , weak and weary,

Over many a quaint and curious volume of           Adjective           lore--

While I nodded, nearly           Verb - Present ends in ING          , suddenly there came a tapping,

As if some one           Adverb           rapping, rapping at my chamber door.

"'Tis some           Noun          ," I muttered, "tapping at my chamber door--

Only           Noun           and nothing more."

Ah,           Adverb           I remember it was in the           Adjective                     Event           ;

And each separate           Verb - Present ends in ING                     Animal           wrought its           Noun           upon the floor.

          Adverb           I wished the morrow;           Adverb           I had sought to borrow

From my           Noun - Plural           surcease of sorrow--sorrow for the lost Lenore--

For the rare and           Adjective           maiden whom the           Animal (plural)           name Lenore--

          Adjective           here for evermore.

And the           Adjective          , sad, uncertain rustling of each purple           Noun          

Thrilled me--filled me with           Adjective           terrors never           Verb - Past Tense           before;

So that now, to still the           Verb - Present ends in ING           of my heart, I           Verb - Past Tense           repeating

"'Tis some           Noun           entreating entrance at my chamber door--

Some

late _____<sup>Noun</sup> entreating entrance at my chamber door;--

Presently my _____<sup>Part of Body</sup> grew stronger; _____<sup>Verb - Present ends in ING</sup> then no longer,

"_____<sup>Animal</sup>," said I, "or Madam, truly your forgiveness I implore;

But the fact is I was _____<sup>Verb - Present ends in ING</sup>, and so gently you came rapping,

And so _____<sup>Adverb</sup> you came tapping , tapping at my chamber door,

That I scarce was sure I heard you"--here I _____<sup>Verb - Past Tense</sup> wide the door;--

_____<sup>Noun</sup> there and nothing more.
