

children story 54

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Verb - Base Form
4. Adjective
5. Adjective
6. Verb Ending -Ed
7. Plural Clothing
8. Adverb
9. Adjective
10. Color
11. Color
12. Number
13. Number
14. Verb Ending -Ed
15. Same First Color
16. Same First Number
17. Second Number
18. Verb Ending -Ed
19. Color
20. Color
21. Verb Ending -Ed
22. Color
23. Verb - Present Ends In Ing

24. Adjective - Ends In Est
25. Verb Ending -Ed
26. Adjective
27. Adjective
28. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
29. Adjective
30. Adjective
31. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
32. Noun
33. Adjective
34. Adjective
35. Verb - Base Form
36. Adjective
37. Verb - Base Form
38. Adjective
39. Adjective
40. Verb Ending -Ed
41. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
42. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
43. Adjective - Ends In Est
44. Verb - Base Form
45. Adjective
46. Adjective
47. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
48. Verb - Base Form

children story 54

Once upon a time there was a Adjective girl called Cinderella and she had two Adjective step sisters who were very unkind who made her do all the hard work. She had to Verb - Base Form the floors, do all the dishes, while they dressed up in fine clothes and went to lots of parties. One day a Adjective invitation arrived at Cinderella's house. It was from the royal palace. The king's only son was a truly handsome prince was going to have a grand ball. Three girls were invited to come. Cinderella knew she wouldn't be allowed to go to the ball. But the Adjective sisters were excited. They couldn't talk about anything else . When the day of the ball came, they made such a fuss. Poor Cinderella had to rush about upstairs and downstairs. She verb ending -ed their hair in fancy waves and curls. She helped them put on their expensive new plural clothing. And she arranged their jewels just so. As soon as they had gone, Cinderella sat down by the fire and she said. "Oh I do wish I could go to the ball". The next moment, standing beside her was a Adverb Adjective lady with a color wand in here hand. "Cinderella, she said " I am your fairy godmother and you shall go to the ball. But first you must go into the garden and pick a color pumpkin, then bring me Number mice from the mousetraps, a whiskered rat from the rat trap, and Number lizards. You'll find the lizards behind the watering can.

So Cinderella verb ending -ed a same first color pumpkin, same first number grey mice, a whiskered rate, second number lizards. The fairy godmother verb ending -ed them with her wand and the pumpkin became a coach, the mice became grey horses, the rat became a coachman with the most enormous moustache, and the lizards became footmen dressed in color and color, then the fairy godmother verb ending -ed Cinderella with the wand and her old dress became a color dress Verb - Present ends in ING with jewels while on her feet was the Adjective - Ends in EST pair of glass slippers ever seen. Remember said the fairy godmother you must leave the ball before the clock strikes twelve because at midnight the magic ends. "Thank you fairy godmother" said Cinderella and she verb ending -ed into the coach. When Cinderella arrived at the ball she looked so Adjective that everyone wondered who she was! Even the Adjective sisters. The Prince of course asked here to dance with him and they danced all evening. He would not dance with anyone else. Now Cinderella was Verb - Present ends in ING the ball so much that she forgot her fairy godmothers warning until it was almost midnight and the clock began to strike. One. Two. Three. She hurried out of the ballroom. Four. Five. Six. As she ran down the palace steps one of her glass slippers fell off. Seven. Eight. Nine. She ran on toward the coach. Ten Eleven Twelve. Then there was Cinderella in her Adjective dress. The pumpkin lay in her feet. And scampering down off down the road were grey mice, a whiskered rat and green lizards.. So Cinderella had to walk home and by the time the Adjective sisters returned home was Verb - Present ends in ING quietly by the Noun.

Now when Cinderella ran from the palace, the prince tried to follow her and he found the glass slipper. He said, "I shall marry the Adjective girl whose foot fits this slipper and only her. IN the morning the prince went from house to house with the glass slipper and every Adjective lady tried to Verb - Base Form her foot into it. But it didn't' fit any of them. At last the prince came to Cinderella's house. First one Adjective sister tried to _____ her foot into the slipper. But her foot was too _____ and fat. Then the other ugly sister tried but her foot was too long and _____. Please said Cinderella, let me try. "The slipper won't fit you", said the ugly sisters. "You didn't go to the ball!" But Cinderella _____ her foot into the glass slipper and it fit perfectly. The next moment _____ beside her was the fairy godmother. She touched Cinderella with the wand and there she was in a golden dress _____ with jewels and on her feet was the _____ pair of glass slippers ever seen. The ugly sisters were so surprised that, for once they couldn't think of anything to say. But the Prince knew what to say. He asked Cinderella to _____ him. And then there was a _____ wedding. Everyone who had gone to the ball was invited, even the _____ sisters. There was wonderful food, lots of music and _____. And the Prince of course danced every dance with Cinderella. He would not _____ with anyone else.