The Snowball

I hate the snow, just the sight of it makes my _____^{Noun} curl and me want to curl up in a _____^{Adjective}, _____^{Adjective} blanket. Why do I hate snow you might ask? Well it started back when I was in 3rd grade, it was the day that my whole grade was going on a field trip to a ski lodge. I loved the _____^{Adjective} weather back then so I wore a _____^{Noun} thin parka, little did I know, I should have piled on layers and layers of clothes. Other students wore layers and layers, numerous long sleeves and thick heavy _____^{Noun - Plural}. After a mundane 30 minutes of lounging around in the lobby we went out to the back and they handed us _____^{Noun - Plural} and _____^{Noun - Plural}. There was a back door and when they opened it the chilly air entered into the room. As we stepped out into the outdoors our _____^{Noun - Plural} sank into the 4-5 inch snow.
The snow was _____^{Adjective} and _____^{Adjective}, it was like we just entered a _____^{Noun} wonderland, the instructors allowed us around an hour before we started lessons on _____^{Noun} and _____^{Verb - Present} _____^{Tense}. We were told to not go near the hill, it was steep and covered in the beautiful snow. The kids scattered and snow started flying through the air, I was pummeled with snowballs that hit me in the chest, I decided to escape the madness of the snowball fight and found myself a clear field. I joined 2 students in making a snowman! _____^{Proper Noun} started rolling a ball for the base and the _____^{Proper Noun} was looking for _____^{Noun - Plural} and _____^{Noun - Plural}. I marched through the _____^{Adjective} snow and suddenly my hat flew off the head. "Ill get it!" _____^{Adverb} shouted as she left her ball of snow. The ball of snow started to roll forward, forward toward me! I was looking in the other direction and it hit me _____^{Noun - Plural} first. Could get worse right? Well it did, I was standing in front of the hill, I was knocked down and I felt my self tumbling down the hill. I heard the screams of Jade and Chase but they were muffled by the snow. I got hit by _____ Noun - Plural _____ and got _____ Noun - Plural in my hair. My whole body was shivering, my clothes were wet and I was dizzy... I didn't go to skiing or snowboarding lessons that day, no, I went to the hospital. The heater was on and I was bundled up in 4 blankets. That's why I hate snow, because of a snowball.
