The Bourne Blank

Jason Bourne woke up with a           Noun          . He was           Verb - Present Tense          .

He looked to his           direction          . Marie           Verb - Past Tense          ,           Verb - Present Tense                     Adverb          .

Someone else was here. He turned to the           Noun                     Noun           on his right and           Verb - Past Tense up the semi-automatic           Noun          , checking if it was           Verb - Past Participle          . It had           Number Noun - Plural          .

He           Verb - Past Tense           got up from the bed, being           Adverb           not to           Proper Noun           Marie.

He went to the           Room          .           description          .

He went to the           Room                     Room          . Still           description          .

          Verb - Present ends in ING          , he           Adverb           back to the bedroom,           Adverb           when he           Proper Noun           Marie standing in the           Room          .

"          Proper Noun          , Marie. It's just you" he said,           Verb - Past Participle          .

"What's           Pronoun          ?" she asked. "It's nothing," he           Verb - Past Tense          . "Go back to           Noun          "

They both went to the           Room          , but as they           doing word           there was a loud bang and a           Noun flash.

"          exclamation          , get down!" Jason           Verb - Present Tense          ,           doing word-ing           Marie into the bathroom and           doing word-ing           the door.

In a second he           doing word-ed                     doing word-ing           the           Noun          , but the assassin was too

          description          .           doing word-ing           and           doing word-ing           the           Noun           out of           name body part          ,

the assassin landed on him with a doing word to body part.

Bourne doing word-ed back but doing word-ed quickly, doing word-ing the next doing word.

The assassin doing word-ed out a weapon. He swung it at Bourne but, before it could make contact, Bourne doing word-ed the assassin's body part doing word-ed it, caught the doing word-ing weapon and doing word-ed the other man in the body part.

He removed the weapon and doing word-ed again, and then doing word-ed it out again, doing word-ed the man in the body part.

The man staggered back and fell down, description-ed.

Marie came out of the Room. "exclamation !" she exclaimed, putting her body part to her body part.

"We have to leave again" Bourne said emotion-ly.

Marie was still doing word-ing shocked. "Marie?!"

She doing word-ed up, startled.

"We need to leave" he doing word-ed. She nodded.

They got into the vehicle outside. Bourne looked into the rear-view Noun and saw number headlights tailing them.

"exclamation ..." he said out loud.
