New baby in the house

Congratulations! You and your sweetie have welcomed aborn baby into your family. Now that your home from the hospital with your bundle of, here's some tips on surviving new Noun hood. First, tiny humans mainly do three things all day long, eat, sleep and verb like there's no tomorrow. Be prepared to have up stains on most of their clothes. If your wife is Part of Body feeding, make sure she has a comfortable chair to in, and a glass of , should she get thirsty. And gentle hands off her while the baby's eating. For many new moms, the idea of a roll in the is the last thing on her mind, are you getting in to petting with each other? A good rule of is to is to verb when your angel sleeps. you'll still be a pair of walking but less pronged to snapping at each other at the drop of a Knee-deep in changing dirty Babies are werb ending in ING machines so it's only fair to take turns.
