

Riding Hood

1. Proper Noun
-

Riding Hood

Little Proper Noun _____ Riding Hood was walking through _____ one her way (location) to visit her sick _____ who was home in bed with _____.

(relative) (disease)

Little _____ Riding Hood had a basket filled with _____ (same color) (food)

and _____ and _____ that she had made herself.

(different food) (beverage)

Her mother told her not to leave the path or talk to _____.

(something scary)

But Little _____ Riding Hood didn't listen to her mother. She met the (same color)

Big, Bad, _____ and told him exactly where she was going.

(small furry animal)

The Big, Bad _____ raced ahead to _____'s

(same small furry animal) (same relative) house and tossed _____ in the closet. Then he got into a _____

(same relative) (type of clothing)

and slipped into bed.

When

Little _____ Riding Hood arrived she said, " _____ what big (same color) (same relative)

_____ you have. The better to _____ you with my dear.

(body part) (one of the 5 senses)

_____ what big _____ you have. The better to (same relative) (another body part)

_____ you with my dear and _____ what big

(another sense) (same relative)

_____ you have the better to _____ my dear.

(third body part) (a different sense)

And then _____ jumped out of bed and chased Little _____

(relative) (same color)

Riding Hood all around the cottage until _____ showed up and said

(famous powerful person)

_____. The big, bad _____ screamed and ran away

(something that person might say) (same furry animal)

and they all lived Happily Ever After.