My high school days (and what I learned from them)

My name's First Name of a Person.

It has been Number long years since I graduated high school. Oh those were the days Back in high school, I was the nerdy type of person. The type of person that the school bully, other name, would

Verb - Base Form in the Noun - Plural everyday. Once, Repeat Last other name Verb - Past Tense my lunchbox, and then hit me in the Part of Body with a Noun. But enough about that anyways I had a few Adjective and Adjective hobbies when I was in high school. I was captain of the Noun team, and I also loved Noun and Noun - Plural. My Adjective - Ends in EST hobby though, would have to be Verb - Present ends in ING. I loved Repeat Last Verb - Present ends in ING anything I could get my Adjective Part of Body on.

I learned a ton of Adjective things in high school. One of the most Adjective lessons that I learned was that you can never or always trust a Noun. No matter how many plural noun you Verb - Base Form, they will always Repeat Last Verb - Base Form one more.

The second lesson is that you should never or always date a girl named female name. She was the most Adjective, Adjective girlfriend I have ever had infact, she is the only one I ever had Repeat Last female name, please call me.

The

last lesson I learned is that you should always listen to your _____ Verb - Present ends in ING friend. You don't know how many times _____ Adjective situations could have been _____ Verb - Past Tense if I had just _____ Verb - Past Tense that.
