

The Little Duck Gets Lost - Fill Adjectives

1. Adjective _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Adjective _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Adjective _____
14. Adjective _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Adjective _____
18. Adjective _____

The Little Duck Gets Lost - Fill Adjectives

The Little Duck was a very _____ Adjective _____ duck! He had _____ Adjective _____ feathers and _____ Adjective _____ webbed feet to help him swim in the water. Little Duck had an _____ Adjective _____ beak that matched the colour of his _____ Adjective _____ feet. He loved swimming in the pond where he lived and playing in the reeds on the edge of the pond.

Little Duck was a very _____ Adjective _____ swimmer but he had never tried to swim across to the _____ Adjective _____ side of the pond by himself.

Today was a particularly _____ Adjective _____ day and the sun was shining _____ Adjective _____ on the water. Little Duck was paddling in the pond looking up the clouds. All of a sudden Little Duck realised he had paddled over to the far side of the pond! Little Duck was all by himself and felt _____ Adjective _____ but then he remembered how well he knew his way around the pond and how _____ Adjective _____ he could be! Surely he could find his way back home...! Little Duck paddled to the left side of the pond where the _____ Adjective _____ trees were ...

But that wasn't where he lived! So he mustered up all his courage and swam over to the other side of the pond where the reeds _____ Adjective _____ the edge of the pond. YAY! Little Duck had found his way back home! He was so _____ Adjective _____ and _____ Adjective _____ of himself for being so _____ Adjective _____ and _____ Adjective _____ and finding his way home back to the _____ Adjective _____ side of the pond! The End.