

dorm

1. Adverb
-

dorm

I just [verb] into my _____ Adverb at Shippensburg University to start my [adjective] year of college! I [verb] in McLean Hall with my [adjective] roommates whose names are [proper noun] and [proper noun]. The one thing I hate most is [verb ending in "ing"] the bathroom because they are [adverb] messy and [adjective]. They keep [verb ending in "ing"] their [noun] and [noun] all over the floor, and they never [verb] the dishes. I saw one of them [verb ending in "ing"] across campus and (adverb) yelled to them, "You left a _____ mess [prepositional phrase] this morning!" Other than that, the dorms are very nice and _____ to live in. [Person] and I [verb] our homework in the [adjective], [adjective] chairs in the quad. I am [adverb] excited to finally [verb] new people [prepositional phrase].