_____<sup>Plural</sup>_____ in the name of St. Valentine. But who is this _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ saint, and where did this tradition come from?

The most _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ legend explains that Emperor Claudius II of Rome believed that _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____

men made better soldiers than those with _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup>_____ and _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup>_____, so he outlawed marriage for young men. Bishop Valentine protested the injustice by continuing to _____<sup>Verb - Base Form</sup>_____ secret
