Today I am going to make lots of different           Noun - Plural          . I'm going to start with my famous pizza that has food           and           color           olives for the toppings. Then I'll make a hamburger with           food          , Noun           lettuce, and           food          . Then I'll make some good           Verb - Past Tense           chicken with Verb - Past Tense           potatoes and           Adjective           corn on the side. Or what about some           Adjective           ol' food           ribs.           food           chicken is also yummy. I also like to eat some           Adjective           corn on the cob. yum yum yum yum yum! And finally for my last food I will make tacos with           food           meat, shredded food          ,           Noun           lettuce,           food           sauce. yum! the end!!!!
