

Chapter 11 section 3

1. Proper Noun
2. Proper Noun
3. Number
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun - Plural
8. Noun
9. Proper Noun
10. Proper Noun
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Noun - Plural
14. Noun
15. Noun - Plural
16. Number
17. Proper Noun
18. Proper Noun

Chapter 11 section 3

_____ Proper Noun _____ Proper Noun created the cotton gin in _____ Number _____. Using the device a laborer could only clean about a _____ Noun of cotton a day. Slaves used the _____ Noun _____ Noun often to help with the labor their owners demanded. The slaves were used by _____ Noun - Plural to grow more cotton. The plant became the greatest source of _____ Noun for the U.S. States such as _____ Proper Noun and _____ Proper Noun depended on it very much. As time went on their became two sides to slavery. Supporters say African Americans would not have to worry about _____ Noun _____. But, critics say that northern workers were free to quit a job if conditions became to harsh where slaves in the _____ Noun couldn't. Life under slavery was very harsh, many found hope in the bible and practiced _____ Noun - Plural which were religious folk songs that blended biblical times with realities of slavery. Laws known as _____ Noun _____ Noun - _____ Plural controlled every aspect of their lives. Things began to change and by _____ Number it was illegal to import Africans to the U.S. Over time rebellion came and they resisted the slaveholders. In 1803 _____ Proper _____ Noun _____ Proper Noun led the most famous slave revolt. As you know, as times passed slavery has changed drastically.