drink suggestions

Are you sick of drinking beer and wine that tastes like _____ fermented _____ or wine made by putting baby _____ in a bottle of rice wine and letting them ferment. Not really the _____ you're looking for?

Then try Chicha, one of the most _____ beverages on Earth. It's made from kernels of _____ that have been chewed by a _____. Sounds _____, right? Or how about _____ _____? The Chinese believe this beverage helps with impotence and _____ loss. The Inuit might win the _____ for the most _____ alcoholic beverage. Take one _____ _____, stick it in the _____ and fill it _____, and let it _____. After _____ days drink up, maybe that beer you're drinking now doesn't taste that _____ after all.
