They were standing so _____ Adverb that they were given a ticket and told how respectful they were being because they were waiting patiently. Little did the kids know that they would be standing in line for a much longer time because there was a disaster in the lunch room. The cooks ran out of _____ Noun - Plural!

To make the time go faster, the two kids decided to help with cleaning up the fruit and _____ Noun bar. They were given a second ticket for being so kind and helping out the custodian. The two kids gave each other a high _____ Number and headed back to line.

Finally, the _____ Verb - Past Participle arrived and everyone was able to eat thanks to the super lunch room staff!
