Our wonderful little buddy

Last month my Daughter, Ashly _____ Adjective _____ to bring a _____ Adjective _____ German Shepherd home. He was a _____ Adjective _____ dog, but completely out of control. The dog went outside in the yard, and proceeded to break through the fence. Well, he ended up running down the street with my _____ Adjective _____ family behind him. We finally caught him and put him in the house. While he was in the house the dog jumped up to the window, knocked down the blinds, and went _____ Adjective _____ through the screen and into the yard, through the fence and back down the street. I finally caught up with him, and took him to the house. He finally settled down by my bed and fell asleep, I guess he was all _____ Adjective _____ out by then. I knew we could not keep him, so I remembered _____ Adjective _____ couple that had mentioned to me they were _____ Adjective _____ for a dog. I contacted them and they took gladly took him. I was so _____ Adjective _____ to have found him a great home, and my cat and I are doing _____ Adjective _____ without him.
