

Balance Transfer Blowout!

1. Verb Base Form
2. Adjective
3. Noun
4. Adverb
5. Place
6. Verb Past Tense
7. Animal
8. Verb Present Ends In Ing
9. Noun
10. Verb Present Ends In Ing
11. Event
12. Verb Past Tense
13. Part Of Body

Balance Transfer Blowout!

A customer called in wanting a Balance Transfer. The Agent was very _____ Verb Base Form and acknowledging to the customers _____ Adjective. The Agent went through the proper work flow to process the Balance Transfer. The Agent asked how their _____ Noun was going. The customer expressed their _____ Adverb to be home. Apparently the customer just got back from a vacation in _____ Place. The customer went on to tell the Agent that they were _____ Verb Past Tense by a irritated _____ Animal. All they were trying to do was be _____ Verb Present ends in ING enough to pet a _____ Noun animal. The customer learned to follow the rules and not _____ Verb Present ends in ING the animals is one to follow. They enjoyed the _____ Event, even being chased. The Agent and customer _____ Verb Past Tense about the story and the Agent thanked her for being a valuable _____ Part of Body of Capital One.