

test

1. Noun
2. Proper Noun
3. Verb Base Form
4. Verb Base Form
5. Verb Past Tense
6. Adjective

test

As the RN _____^{Noun}_____, it is _____^{Proper Noun}_____ responsibility to insure the safety of patients, staff and physicians. The investigation _____^{Verb Base Form}_____ that there were not any system or training problems that caused the performance issues identified. Larry _____^{Verb Base Form}_____ to report these concerns. Pursuant to Policy 1.27 Occurrence/Patient Safety _____^{Verb Past Tense}_____, staff are required to report any happening or situation not consistent with the routine operation of the hospital/facility or the routine care of a patient or visitor, including situations considered to be "near misses" or that do not result in injury. Larry's failure to report concerns jeopardizes patient safety and the reputation of the organization. As a result of this _____^{Adjective}_____ risk behavior, Larry is being terminated effective immediately