Violence of Action

"Well what about violence of action?" the man asked.

"I'm sorry, what?" I replied.

"Violence of action. We go in screaming and _____ Verb Present ends in ING our _____ Part of Body in the air. Then they know they HAVE to listen to what we are saying." His voice was quite _____ Adjective as he sipped his beverage, staring out the window at the parking lot.

"Listen, _____ First Name of a Person." My tone took on a _____ Adjective sound to it. "I know _____ First Name of a Person left you, and I understand you are trying to pick up the _____ Noun Plural, but I just don't think violence of action is a real _____ Adjective way to sell used cars."
