Scary Camp Story

Dear _____
First Name of a Person

Tonight all the older _____
Noun Plural _____
Noun Plural were allowed to stay up late, go into the adjective gallery, see plural noun _____, and listen to our adjective gallery assistant tell a/an adjective story called "The Portrait of a Lady"/ When the gallery assistant tells a scary noun he/she gets a wild noun in his/hers eyes and uses a booming noun that gives you goose plural noun all over. When I left the gallery and got back to noun, I was so frightened, that I couldn't sleep after Untitled Friday. I was afraid to close my plural noun. When I finally did, I had noun nightmares. I kept seeing "The Lady" doing adjective things- like staring at me with noun... and dancing! The next morning I made up my mind to never listen to an/a noun story again. You really tired, your name
