The Petting Zoo

One day, your Mum took you to the Petting Zoo for the first time in your life! You were so excited happy sad etc to see all the Adjective animals. You Verb Past Tense into your room of house to get your clothing, clothing and clothing. Unfortunately, when Verb Present ends in ING down the stairs, you tripped and knocked out all your teeth and broke your Part of Body. "OOGA!" you Verb Past Tense in pain. "Oh your poor Noun!" cooed your mother, as she Verb Past Tense you up and almost Verb Past Tense you into the back of your Adjective car. To make things even worse, her manly throw broke your other Part of Body, but you took it in your stride because you were taught to have a stiff upper Part of Body.

When you got to the hospital, they said to you that you would need surgery and it would take Number years for your teeth to grow back and an additional Number years for your fractures to heal. Luckily for you, the petting zoo were having their anual hospital Event session on this very day! As you prepared yourself for the next few months of being in a wheel chair, you looked up to see the exhibition was starting. You could see Adjective Animal (plural), Adjective Animal (plural), Adjective Animal (plural), Adjective Animal (plural), Adjective Animal (plural) and even a Adjective Animal! The only thing stopping you was the long queue. Good luck pushing in with a wheel chair! I guess you'll have to wait until next year, you Adjective Noun.

As you _____ Verb Past Tense _____ yourself to sleep, you remembered you had absolutely nothing in life worth living for and wondered how you'd survive these next few days on _____ Adjective _____ hospital food.

The End.
