Rachael and Andrews Baby Shower

Rachael and Andrew met among and the family grew to know and love the both of them. Fast forward to the Noun , our families gathered to witness them tying the They for 2 weeks in the exotic of New and returned more in love than ever before. By the time their first anniversary verb Past Tense around they had moved to Seattle found out they had verb Past Tense ! The addition of baby Proper Noun brought excitement to their family and friends. As baby Marge began to grow Rachael's became smaller and her is starting to with our friends and relatives gathering at the Friedl house. They are open to any advice you can give like, " Don't the baby" or "take turns verb Present ends in ING at night" and maybe "Watch out for Verb Present ends in ING when changing the Noun " or "babies are Adverb when they need to" Either way we know they'll be successful with the amount of love everyone has to give. Baby Marge will be adored and amazing and we can't wait to meet her! Thank you all for gathering for Rachael!
