Rider's Adventure

It was a _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective day when _____ Proper Noun was being held up by enemy _____ Adjective. He had been shot at and almost killed the hour before. Now, he was hiding from the oncoming _____ Noun, somehow not being seen. He couldn't run. He had to finish the _____ Noun Plural, to find and capture the _____ Noun who was behind the cloning of _____ Noun. _____ Proper Noun patched up his wounds, and rested. An hour later, _____ Proper Noun was ready. Ready to find and capture the leader. He snuck from his hiding place on the cargo ship, and refilled his ammo, hoping that he wouldn't need to use his _____ Adjective _____ Adjective _____ Noun he got from his father. _____ Proper Noun new where the leader was, the problem was getting there past the guards. He saw two guards coming, and no where to run. He had a silencer on his rifle now, and he was glad he packed it. _____ Proper Noun shot the two _____ Noun, straight in the chest. He didn't want to, but was them or him. He now was moving into the _____ Noun of the _____ Noun, where he saw the _____ Noun sitting. Four more guards were in the room. Rider threw his only _____ Adjective _____ Noun, and ran into the room to grab the leader. Now he had no other choice but to use the _____ Adjective _____ Noun he had gotten from _____ Proper Noun in London. Rider used four of the darts on the _____ Noun, then the leader of the organization. Rider called in the helicopter for MI6 to pick up the package. There were six guards running up the staircase. Rider shot all six with his remaining darts. The helicopter arrived just in time, because that was when the reinforcements came in on speed boats to assist. But it was too late. Rider and _____ Proper Noun had already taken their objective. The mission was a success, with _____ Proper Noun only having minor injuries.
