

Thomas Spell

1. Adjective
2. Proper Noun
3. Common Noun
4. Comparative
5. Comparative
6. Irregular Past Tense Verb
7. Proper Adjective
8. Proper Adjective
9. Abstract Noun
10. Demonstrative
11. Proper Noun

Thomas Spell

Dyson is the biggest and the Adjective person in the world. Dyson likes to jump up and down to Proper Noun. His favorite common noun is pizza with small peas on it. He also likes working at a comparative comparative that is very dirty and smelly. Dyson also likes to ride his unicorn. He doesn't have any body to love him. He irregular past tense verb songs to try to get somebody to love him again. Dyson has three sports cars and a proper adjective proper adjective. He also has a abstract noun. Dyson spends his days in the park. Dyson is also a demonstrative. Proper Noun house is so dirty inside. He used to have a Spanish girlfriend.