

Skylar Reck

1. Superlative
2. Pronoun
3. Proper Adjective
4. Noun
5. Common Noun
6. Proper Noun
7. Conjunction
8. Abstract Noun
9. Demonstrative
10. Article
11. Verb Present Ends In Ing
12. Comparative
13. Noun Plural
14. Adjective
15. Verb Past Tense
16. Preposition

Skylar Reck

There once was the Superlative man in town, named Cletus. Pronoun is an Proper Adjective Noun. He has no Common Noun. He wanted friends but people thought he was scary. Cletus ran through a market yelling and people thought he was a scary person, but he's a nice person. Proper Noun is a very loving person, Conjunction he has no one to Abstract Noun. He was in the market and asked,
"Are you selling Demonstrative?". Article clerk replied "Yes, we are!". He was Verb Present ends in ING Comparative Noun Plural for protein. Cletus bought a Adjective fruit he did not know about. He sat down at his dinner table with his fruit as a side and without knowing he ate it and he Verb Past Tense Preposition of his chair. He couldn't breathe and since no one was around Cletus was laying on his floor, DEAD!!!!