One day in BSA

One day during our _____^{Noun} Meeting, _____^{First Name of a Person} asked us about what we were doing for the Holidays. Each of us went around and shared excitedly our plans. When it came to my turn, I became excited and started to sing about my plans to bake and play football, a tradition that runs in my family every winter. Our manager Tom then asked us what one gift we wanted to receive this year. He gave us a few minutes to discuss with one another. I whispered to Sally next to me and told her the only gift I wanted was to have my 100 cases pending drop to 2. She laughed and agreed with enthusiasm. At the end of our meeting, we were given coffee and cookies and left with our stomachs full and joy in our hearts when we realized that the Team holiday party was also just a few hours away, thus ending another day in the life of the BSA department.
