_____^{Past Tense} just kept piling up higher and higher. That's what the world would look like if we never recycled.

All of our waste just keeps _____^{Verb Present ends in ING} until it pollutes our _____^{Adjective} rivers and poisons our beloved _____^{Noun Plural} when we choose not to throw our trash away. Thankfully, we don't have to _____^{Verb Base Form} like this. If we remember to recycle all of our _____^{Noun Plural}, use all of our

_____^{Noun Plural} more than once, and put in the effort to turn our _____^{Noun Plural} into new products that we can use over and over again, we can find ourselves living in a _____^{Adjective} and _____^{Color Ending in -er} world no time at all.
