Chapter 1: I'm Rafe Khatchadorian, Tragic Hero

It feels as Adjective as the day is Adjective that I begin this tale of total Noun and Noun with me, my Adjective sister, Girl in our class, and Boy in our class the Adjective Verb Present ends in ING like rotting Noun Plural in the back of a Hills Village Police Department Noun.

Now, there's a Adjective family Noun you don't want to be a part of, believe me. More on the Adjective Village Police incident later. I need to Verb myself up to Verb you that disaster Noun.

So anyway, Exclamation, here it is, Noun fans, and all of you in need of Noun points at school, the Adjective autobio of my life so far. The Adjective middle school years. If you've Adverb been a middle Person doing something - ending in -er, you understand already. If you're not in Adjective school yet, you'll Verb soon enough.
