The (Mad Libs) Story of Ferdinand by Munro Leaf

Once upon a time in _	Proper Noun	_ there was a	Adjective	_ bull and his	name wa	s Ferdinand	. All the other Adjective	_ bulls he lived v	vith would run and	their	Noun Plural	_ togethe	er, but not Fe	rdinand.
He liked to sit just qui	etly and smell th	e Noun Plural	He had	a favorite spot	out in th	e pasture un	der a tree. It	was his favorite	tree and he would	sit in its sh	ade all day and	Vei	rb Base Form	_ the flowers. Sometimes hi	s mother, who w	as a cow, would w	orry about	him. She was	afraid he	would be lo	nesome all by himself. "Why o	lon't you run and	Verb Base Form	with tl	ne other little b	ulls and	skip and butt	your

was don't you? -FERDINAND. 7	They called hin	n Ferdinand the F	Fierce and all the	Banderilleros w	ere afraid of him and the Picadores were afrai	d of him and t	he Matador was s	cared stiff. Ferdir	nand ran to the r	niddle of the ring and everyone shouted and cl	apped because	e they thought he	was going to figh	at fiercely and but	att and snort and stick his horns around. But n	ot Ferdinand.	When he got to the	ne middle of the ri	ing he saw the f	lowers in all the lovely ladies' hair and he just sat	down quietly	and smelled. He v	wouldn't fight and	l be fierce no ma	atter what they did. He just sat and smelled. And	the Banderill	eros were mad an	d the Picadores w	vere madder and	the Matador was so mad he cried because he	couldn't show	off with his cape	and sword. So the	ey had to take Fo	erdinand home.

for all I know he is sitting there still, under his favorite cork tree, smelling the flowers just quietly. He is very happy.
