Abram's Journey

Now the Lord said to [_____Your Name____], 'Go from your country and your kindred and your family's house to the land that I will show you. I will [_____Verb Base Form____] of you a great [_____Noun____], and I will [_____Verb Base Form____] you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will [_____Verb Base Form____] those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will [_____Verb Base Form____]; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'

So [_____Your Name____] went, as the Lord had said; and Lot went, too. [_____Your Name____] was [_____Number____] years old. [] Sarai and [] Lot, and all the [_____Noun Plural____] that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired set forth to go to [_____Location____].

When they had come to the land of Canaan, [_____Your Name____] passed through the land to [_____Location____], to the oak of Moreh. At that time the [_____Noun Plural____] were in the land. Then the Lord appeared to [_____Your Name____], and said, 'To your [_____Noun Plural____] I will give this land.'

So [_____Your Name____] built there an altar to the Lord. From there they moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched the [_____Dwelling____], with Bethel on the west and [_____Location____] on the east; and there built a [_____Noun____] to the Lord and [_____Verb Base Form____] the name of the Lord. And [_____Your Name____] journeyed on by stages towards the [_____Body of Water____].
