The First Patient Encounter

Pharmacist: Hello Mr. _____! Are you here to pick up your _____ today?

Patient: No I already picked them up last _____.

I've had, like, _____ weeks of _____. I have been to _____ and got a prescription for _____. And then I kept having dry _____, and I went to _____ and got another prescription for _____. That was _____ days ago, and I'm not any better. I think I need some _____ because my friends took it and got better. And I'm just so tired of feeling _____. Can you give me something to make me _____? Every year my regular doctor gives me _____, and I always get better immediately.

Pharmacist: Unfortunately, you have _____, but don't worry. You will get better, soon. Your physician prescribed you _____, take it every _____ with plenty of _____, rest, and call me if you feel _____.
