

Ok here we go

1. Verb Present Ends In S
2. Noun
3. Verb Present Ends In S
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Noun
9. Verb Present Ends In S
10. Noun
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Noun
14. Noun
15. Noun

Ok here we go

The mouse sat in his hole listening to his grumbling, rumbling belly. He hadn't eaten for days, not even a _____ of food had passed his poor, starving lips. So with a massive effort the mouse lifted himself up and _____ out of his hole. He scuttled along the skirting board _____ the _____. He didn't feel very hopeful. He _____ gone to the kitchen every day for the last week and hadn't found anything. _____ Jones was so careful to tidy everything away. But as the mouse got closer to the kitchen a familiar smell hit his nose. He stopped. His nose immediately started _____ as he sniffed the air. IT WAS CHEESE _____ Was this a dream? No, it _____ be. This was cheese and a big piece of cheese at that. The mouse had a _____ burst of energy and shot along the _____ to the kitchen like a firework.

There it was. A big, hulking lump of cheese. It looked _____. Just waiting for him to eat it. The mouse _____ on the cheese and set to work nibbling and gnawing in a circle all around the cheese. He devoured the whole thing in just a few moments and then sat down on his back legs completely stuffed. He sat there in a daze. He had forgotten all about his hunger.

Very slowly he went back to his mouse hole, feeling ready to sleep for _____ week. But when he got back to his hole, "Oh No" _____ couldn't get in. His stomach was so fat it wouldn't fit. He struggled and struggled and squeezed and squeezed but he couldn't get in, although he tried desperately. Poor greedy mouse!