Adam's Big Bar Mitzvah

One day Adam turned number. He started to get Adjective because he knew his Bar Mitzvah was soon. He had not practiced anything and barely knew 5 words in Hebrew. His Bar Mitzvah was in 9 days so he had to start practicing. He studied all day the next day and still wasn't doing that good. He had Noun the next day but he Verb Past Tense it to Verb Base Form. He got a Adjective better at his Hebrew, but he still only had 7 days left. He skipped school the rest of the week but made little progress. He had 1 day left and had to learn everything on that 1 day. So he Verb Past Tense all day long. No sleep, no Noun, no drinks. 5 minutes before his Bar Mitzvah he finally learned everything. He jumped in the Noun and got to his Bar Mitzvah as it was starting. He did really good and everybody was Verb Past Tense, but he learned a lesson: Don't wait to the last minute to practice anything.
