A Strange Day at CMS

On Monday, January 11, myself and other _____
down the halls to our first class.

I enter Ms. Jordet's classroom but I am _____ by what I see. All the desks have been replaced with _____ _____ are scattered around the room and the lights _____.

When the bell _____, myself and all the other _____ take our seats. As we wait
_____, we wonder where our teachers could be. Suddenly, a _____ and a _____ come _____ through the door and I realize that Ms. Jordet and Mrs. Mollan have been replaced. If the change in teachers wasn't _____ enough, we spend the hour learning how to _____ and _____ instead of reading and writing.

On my way to lunch, later in the day, I see my best friend _____.

"_____! Have your classes been _____ today too?" I ask.

"Yes! In math class we learned how to _____ today and my science teacher had _____ hair

and sang everything!"

I am glad I am not the only one having a Adjective day. As I ate my Color pizza the cafeteria was serving, I got started on my Number hours of homework from just the morning classes, only to be interrupted by Mr. Toth on the overheard speaker saying that afternoon classes were cancelled and everyone should report to the gym for a Adjective game of Noun.
