

Missing Pet Returns

1. First Name
2. Last Name
3. Noun
4. Verb Base Form
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Verb Present Ends In Ing
9. Noun Plural
10. Noun
11. Verb Present Ends In Ing
12. Noun Plural
13. First Name
14. Last Name
15. Noun
16. Adjective
17. Last Name
18. Noun
19. Verb Past Tense
20. Verb Past Tense
21. Noun
22. Verb Base Form

Missing Pet Returns

Nearly two weeks had passed since _____ First Name _____ Last Name and her children had seen their _____ Noun _____, Pumpkin.

At first, the disappearance didn't immediately alarm the family because it wasn't too unusual for him to _____ Verb Base Form _____ -- he's an indoor/outdoor _____ Noun _____, they said. But after not seeing him the _____ Noun _____ prior, they knew something was up the morning of Jan. 18.

"I wanted to give him a _____ Noun _____ to come home before _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____," the owner said, but eventually their family hit the _____ Noun Plural _____ to try to find their missing _____ Noun _____. "We had spent hours _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ the neighborhoods and looking into the _____ Noun Plural _____ we received."

Thirteen days had gone by when _____ First Name _____ Last Name _____ and children spotted a _____ Noun _____, similar in color to their own, on their _____ Adjective _____ patio when returning home on Jan. 30. _____ Last Name _____ home is about three blocks away from the owner's home.

Finally, the owner made her way to go and pick up their _____ Noun _____. Her daughters, who were at school when Crutchfield reached out to Watt, _____ Verb Past Tense _____ and _____ Verb Past Tense _____ after learning about their _____ Noun _____ return home. She said her son, who is young, was mostly glad that the family didn't have to anymore.
_____ Verb Base Form _____