

Jelly Beans Tell a Story (Written by Barbara Hooks)

1. Spelling Word _____
2. Noun _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Spelling Word _____
5. Spelling Word _____
6. Noun _____
7. Spelling Word _____
8. Adjective _____
9. Noun _____
10. Spelling Word _____

Jelly Beans Tell a Story (Written by Barbara Hooks)

Black is for the evil planned _____ Spelling Word _____ Word that night.

Yellow is for God's Son Who is the Light.

Red is for the precious blood that Jesus gave,

Green is for the _____ Noun _____ that grew beside the grave.

Orange is for the _____ Adjective _____ sun as soldiers _____ Spelling Word _____ slept.

Pink is for the rising sun as Mary wept.

Purple is for rulers who could not _____ Spelling Word _____ win.

White is for the cloth He left within.

Blue is for the _____ Noun _____ in the sea.

On the shore, "The risen Lord, oh, could it be?"

Many _____ Spelling Word _____ witnessed this _____ Adjective _____ event.

Disciples watched as heavenward He went.

The

angel said He would return.

Exactly when we do not learn.

A _____^{Noun} full of jellybeans help _____^{Spelling Word} tell.

A story of love, we know so well!

Share the candy, share the joy.

Jesus died for girls and boys.