Morgan, the Incredible Scientist

One day Morgan wondered what she was up to! She told us she had been awake in her lab all night Adjective experiments. First, she showed us her lab station. There were test tubes with Adjective Noun Plural in them. Noun Plural were bubbling out of them! Then she showed us her Noun of the solar system using Noun and Noun as models. Then, with another Adjective smile, Morgan said, "I have saved the very Adjective for last!" Behind her was a/an Adjective curtain. The class was on the edge of their Noun Plural ! "Are you ready?" She pulled the curtain up Low and behold, Morgan had created a monster! The monster had Number eyes, Adjective hair, and was the size of a Noun . Then, she flipped some switches on her control board, and the monster started to Verb Base Form! Oh no! What happened? Her camera went off!
