Kwanzaa Celebration

Happy _____! I'm so _____ for my family's Kwanzaa celebration this year! Every day, we _____ one of the _____ candles on our _____. Each _____ stands for one of the _____ principles of _____, such as _____, _____, and faith. Then, we _____ what the day's principle means to us. After we light the _____, we _____ while my mother _____ the drum. Sometimes I play my own _____ with her. After our dance party, we get ready for a _____ feast. We get to eat various types of _____ set on top of an _____, which is a place mat. The m'keka is one of the several _____ of Kwanzaa, along with the kinara and the _____ cup. People make _____ to give to each other, and _____ books about African heritage. I love celebrating _____ with my _____.
