My Favorite Teacher Contest

Dear School Board,

I heard you were running a contest to pick the most _____ Adjective teacher in town. I should like to nominate

Mr. _____ Last Name, who teaches history and _____ Adjective studies at _____ Last Name Middle School.

He is always patient with his _____ Noun Plural no matter how _____ Adjective or _____ Adjective we get.

Yesterday he asked, "Who is president of the United States?" and I help up my _____ Body Part and said "

_____ Male Celebrity." My answer was incorrect, but he didn't get _____ Adjective or hit me with a _____ Noun or even make me _____ Verb Past Tense in the corner. He gave me a second chance and asked, "

Who is buried in Grant's tomb?" I knew that one. I answered, " _____ Male Celebrity." And for a grade, he gave me a _____ Letter of the Alphabet. He also doesn't mind when we have to go to the _____ A Kind of Room and doesn't get mad if we throw _____ Noun Plural or hide under the _____ Piece of Furniture. I hope you pick him as the world's best _____ Occupation.
