

How to Plan a Scavenger Hunt

1. Adjective
2. Verb Base Form
3. Verb Present Ends In Ing
4. Adjective
5. Noun Plural
6. Adjective
7. Verb Base Form
8. Noun Plural
9. Noun Plural
10. Adjective
11. Adjective
12. Verb Base Form
13. Verb Base Form
14. Verb Base Form
15. Noun Plural
16. Noun Plural
17. Verb Base Form
18. Noun Plural
19. Adjective
20. Noun Plural
21. Noun Plural
22. Verb Base Form
23. Verb Base Form

24. Verb Present Ends In S

How to Plan a Scavenger Hunt

If your family is growing _____ Adjective _____ of normal go-to activities, you can _____ Verb Base Form _____ things up a bit by _____ Verb Present ends in ING _____ your very own scavenger hunt! Scavenger hunts can be as long or _____ Adjective _____ as you like and can be done indoors, outdoors or a combination of both. They can involve finding _____ Noun Plural _____ or just following clues to the next spot. You can create a hunt that is kid-friendly or opt for a more _____ Adjective _____ set of clues for adults. It really is whatever you decide.

Here's how to get started:

1) Choose your location(s) and time of day. _____ Verb Base Form _____ where you would be okay with the participants going and plan accordingly. You may not want your little ones going near fragile _____ Noun Plural _____, but going to the toy bin is fair game. Likewise, if the scavenger hunt is for _____ Noun Plural _____, you may want to have more _____ Adjective _____ locations. Time of day and weather are important if you're opting to have an _____ Adjective _____ hunt.

2) Decide what type of scavenger hunt you want to _____ Verb Base Form _____. You can make a list of items you want participants to _____ Verb Base Form _____ and have the search be a free-for-all or you can set up clues to _____ Verb Base Form _____ them in a certain order.

3)

Create your lists. If you want to have _____ Noun Plural brought to you, generate a list of the objects to give to scavenger hunt _____ Noun Plural. If you want them to _____ Verb Base Form clues, create the list of hints and the coordinating locations.

4) Hide the clues and/or _____ Noun Plural. Make sure they're not in _____ Adjective sight.

5) Give each team the list of _____ Noun Plural and/or clues. If you're giving _____ Noun Plural, make sure each person's are in a different order so they don't _____ Verb Base Form each other around.

First one to _____ Verb Base Form all the clues and grab the final object _____ Verb Present ends in S!

Happy hunting!