Hawaiian Luau

Once upon a           Noun           Lula and Jughead threw the           Adjective           and           Adjective           hawaiian           Noun           ever known in history right in their           Noun          . Even though the temperature was sweltering           Adjective           it didn't keep anyone from staying home. They all wanted to be part of the           Noun           in the sun. Some of the           Adjective                     Noun           and activities being held were           Noun                     Noun           relays, watermelon           Verb ending in ing           and water slip and           Verb ending in ing          . And still there was the most           Adjective           food known to           Plural noun           grilled           Noun          . But not just any grilled burger,           Noun           was added to these           Adjective           mouthwatering, tasty slabs of           Noun          . How much more fun could a party get?
