The Autotune Quest

Once upon a           Noun           there were was a           Noun           that was ruled by many           Plural noun          . These           Same plural noun           were actually record label           Plural noun          . They ruled the land with an iron           Noun           only           Verb ending in ing           the best of the best of           Plural noun                     Plural noun           to become           Plural noun          .

However, one day, there came an incredible invention: autotune.

Suddenly, the people from the           Adjective ening in est                     Plural noun           of           Noun           to the single soccer           Plural noun           could become famous by simply           Verb ending in ing           a tune. It didn't matter how hard you could           Noun           how fast you could belt a           Noun           or how well you could carry a           Noun          . With the help of autotune, people with a voice that sounded like they had           Body part                     Noun           could suddenly have the voice of an           Particularly nasty object          .

Yet, there came a day when this happy day would have to come. That happy day ended when Rebecca Black decided to step onto the Noun.

Such evil had never been seen in the Noun and the land was cast in Plural animal. There seemed to be no hope for people around anywhere. No matter how much they used their Plural noun or tried to dig themselves a Noun to bury themselves in, they could not Verb from the warbling of the autotune.

Finally, the world was Past tense verb by a big storm, and autotune was never heard from again. But the evil still lurks in the General location ready to strike when autotune Present tense verb again.
