My Family

| 1. | Adjective |
|-----|-----------------|
| 2. | Noun |
| 3. | Noun |
| 4. | Noun |
| 5. | Past Tense Verb |
| | Adjective |
| | Verb |
| | Adjective |
| | Adjective |
| | Adjective |
| 11. | |
| 11. | Noun |
| 12. | Plural Noun |
| 13. | Adjective |
| 14. | Noun |
| 15. | Noun |
| 16. | Noun |
| 17. | Adjective |
| | Adjective |
| | Noun |
| 1). | 10011 |

My Family

| My family is quite My mother remarried after her divorce to her ex husbands |
|---|
| My father now over compensates for hisin his first marriage, and now that he is |
| to Hazel, he has pretty much become aman. His new wife is an alcoholic |
| although she would never Verb it, and she is also a very Adjective and Adjective woman |
| I have a brother and sisters too, who are relatively Adjective I only hope they can say the same for me! |
| These days my mum lives in Melbourne with my and she has been dating she |
| has met over the internet. She seems but I think she should put her before |
| herself when it comes to how much time she spends with her new |
| Dad lives in Queensland with his father and brother, and of course his He very rarely |
| I can almost say he never does. Her son on the other hand is in contact with them every day |
| one way or another, and I can truly say I feel veryfor his wife - she will never live up to his |
| ideals of his mother. |
| All in all though, it suppose it is my family and the only one I have. In my next lifetime, I plan on being |
| Noun . |

The End.

.

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.