African Fable

Once upon a time, a long time ago, there lived a young           Noun           and           Noun           in a           Adjective           village in Africa. For some time now, the           Noun           had not been happy with his marriage. He began to come home late from working in the           Plural noun          . His           Noun           thought he was the most           Adjective           man. But she was           Adjective           too. His behavior was making her           Adjective          .

Finally, she went to the oldest man in her village, the village elder. The elder was sad to hear her marriage was not a happy one. He had married them only two years before. At the time, he was sure that the marriage would be a good one.
