Fall 2011

During Fall 2011 eight new           Noun           were being initiated and           Past tense verb           into the SAL family.

They were a           Adjective           bunch. After spending eight weeks of pledge class and completing their           Adjective           interviews they have           Adverb           earned the title of being a brother in Alpha Phi Omega.

But their journey hasn't ended yet. There was still one more surprise left in store. Our mascot Silly SAL wanted to           Verb           everyone. All of them were           Adjective           to meet Silly SAL.
