My Day at Lower Cape May

It's tough being a high school _____<sup>Noun</sup> these days. I start off the day by waking up _____<sup>Adverb</sup> hoping i don't _____<sup>Verb</sup> and miss the _____<sup>Noun</sup>. It's winter time now so there is always a _____<sup>Adjective</sup> wind in the morning. Once I arrive at school, I walk through the _____<sup>Adjective</sup> hallways and search for my _____<sup>Noun</sup>. The bus arrived late so I only have 2 minutes until class starts. With no time to _____<sup>Verb</sup> and my locker in B hallway, I scramble around the _____<sup>Adjective</sup> crowd that usually gathers between C and Main hallway and _____<sup>Adverb</sup> make it to my _____<sup>Adjective</sup> class of the day with Mr. Rosenberg and Mr. Morey.
This class is the highlight of my day because I _____<sup>Verb</sup> so much and _____<sup>Adverb</sup> have fun!
