HOW THEY MET the story of Vanessa & Justin

Once upon a time Vanessa and Justin met at a adjective           Noun          . The first thing that Vanessa did was           Verb           Justin. Justin was so shocked to be           Same verb past tense           by Vanessa, that he immediately asked her out on a           Noun           and Vanessa said           Exclamation           They went to the place and they held plural noun all night. Ever since that day, Justin has never gotten Vanessa out of his           Noun          . It only took him           Number           years to give her a           Noun          .
